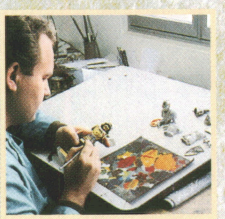
How Our Swords are Crafted

The time-honored artistry of the swordmakers of Toledo, Spain...the techniques of the Japanese mastercraftsman, this is what makes our swords renowned for unsurpassed quality. The painstaking process begins with a master engraver who creates a cast using an original hilt. The original mold is given the utmost attention so that no detail is neglected. The hilts are shaped from this original piece and are then hand-finished and polished. The blade of the sword is carefully shaped from the finest 420 stainless steel by a craftsman using a grinding wheel and is fully tempered to 48-53 Rockwell hardness so that it is more durable than the original. After the blade is etched and polished, the hilt is hand-fitted onto its tang.

Collect the Swords of History and Fantasy



Discover magnificent re-creations of actual museum pieces, even the most cherished weapons of the Samurai. From the pages of myth and chivalry come our unique interpretations of the legendary swords of King Arthur and Robin Hood, Solomon and Genghis Khan. a convenient interest-free payment plan. Now there is no reason not to begin or add to your collection of the swords of history and fantasy.

What is the difference?

Since we sell our items mostly by catalog we get this question asked frequently by people who see our items and compare them to "similar" items in other catalogs. Wel the answer is very simple: quality, integrity and craftsmanship. You have our commitment when you purchase any item in our catalog that it is a first rate product the best of its kind made in the world, or we wouldn't be selling it. When you see a "similar" item in any other catalog, take the time to make sure where it is made and by whom. Chances are that it is a knock-off being produced using second rate methods, not a true collectable that has real value in its workmanship, quality and design.

The Shirasaya

The beauty of the shirasaya is in its simplicity, yet no other samurai blade is as unique and deadly. Masterfully crafted and graceful, it is renowned as the ultimate samurai weapon for the incredible sharp blade it conceals in a seemingly harmless staff. The scabbard and handle are made from a single piece of wood to match perfectly. A blood groove runs down the blade which has a "midare-ba" (confused) temper line. This pattern is the most difficult to construct and temper. Only when removed from their scabbards do these swords reveal their lethal qualities.

This symbol mara-tu means "the perfection of the blade".

An Exclusive World Premier Knife by
Acclaimed Fantasy Artist Don Maitz

The Wizard's Edge

The Wizard's edge is in his magical glowing sphere. Using the power of his mind he suspends the fiery jewel in midair. Through it he controls the forces of nature and a giant spellbound dragon.

Captured atop The Wizard's Edge fantasy knife sits this radiant crystal clear orb. It crowns a wondrous knife that has a silver-plated handle in the shape of a scaled flying dragon and a wizard's helmet. A red crystal cabochon rests on the head of the dragon and a black cabochon at the center of the helmet. The flame-shaped stainless steel blade is etched with the wizard's hypnotic markings.
